

I wish to express my opposition to Consumer Bankers Association's current challenge to the Indiana Telephone Privacy Law which I understand is now before the FCC. I do not want to be bothered by these banks or any other businesses by phone, whether they have an "established business relationship" with me or not. I have had peace at my home since the Indiana law was passed and I would very much regret any increase in unwanted calls. Thank you for your consideration.